BIOGRAPHY

Alongkorn Tongmee is an attorney-at-law in the Tilleke & Gibbins dispute resolution department. Alongkorn provides pre-litigation advice concerning various legal issues and represents plaintiffs and defendants in civil and criminal cases related to contracts, wrongful acts, family disputes, business reorganization and bankruptcy, and immigration and work permit matters.

Alongkorn is a well-rounded attorney, having previously practiced with the firm's corporate and commercial team. In this capacity, Alongkorn handled corporate matters and advised on business establishment, commercial agreements, family matters, and applications for visas, permanent residence permits, and work permits.

Alongkorn has completed the Barrister-at-Law requirements of the Institute of Legal Education, Thai Bar Association.

EXPERIENCE

- Prosecuted and defended various complex civil and criminal actions related to breach of contract, wrongful acts, undue enrichment, fraud, and attempted fraud on behalf of our client.
- Defended clients against criminal charges related to work permit issues, including providing legal advice, assisting clients at inquiry meetings with police officials, attending court hearings, and assisting with the immigration process.
- Assisted a client with business reorganization. Our representation included providing legal advice, preparing and submitting the debt repayment application, attending the creditors' meeting, and attending court hearings.
- Represented a client in a bankruptcy case. Our representation included providing legal advice, preparing and submitting a petition for an absolute receivership order and the debt repayment application, attending various meetings with the official receiver, and attending court hearings.
- Helped a U.S. enterprise that successfully bid for a large IT project to commence and continue operations in Thailand, including securing long-term visas and work permits for a number of IT specialists of various nationalities and providing general legal counsel.
