BIOGRAPHY

Dussadee Rattanopas is an associate in Tilleke & Gibbins' commercial and corporate group. Maintaining a dynamic and broad practice, Dussadee advises on the legal and regulatory aspects concerning banking and securities, governmental relations, joint ventures, mergers and acquisitions, securities transactions, and foreign investment in Thailand. A big-picture strategist who also pays attention to detail, Dussadee reviews, analyzes, and prepares various commercial contracts.

Dussadee's strong English skills are an asset in commercial transactions with international players. He received his legal education from Thammasat University (LLB), The American University (LLM), and Boston University (LLM). He is a barrister-at-law and a member of the Lawyers Council of Thailand and the Thai Bar Association.

EXPERIENCE

- Assisted an aerospace and defense company in acquiring a minority shareholding interest in three Thai companies engaged in high-tech products and related services (Deal Value: THB 205,000,000).
- Advised a consortium of financial institutions on telecommunications laws in connection with their bids to provide credit facilities (totaling THB 15.85 billion) to a major telecommunications operator for the expansion of a 3G mobile network and infrastructure.
- Provided advice to a multinational mobile phone network company in relation to data interception and data access via mobile phone and e-mail usage in Thailand.
- Provided advice related to cross-border electronic payment transactions to a credit card settlement company.
- Selected from several candidate law firms to assist a reputable Thai manufacturer in the IPO process, including preparation, conversion to public company, SEC filing, and SET listing. Several years after the IPO, the company has greatly prospered such that the owner has become one of the ten richest persons in Thailand. We are proud to continue representing this client.
- Facilitated client growth and increased capital for business operations by converting the client's business from a private to a public company and listing its securities on the Market for Alternative Investment (MAI) stock exchange.
